Document	Description	Location
GFE Laptop	The Government will provide approved GFE laptops for the SI to remotely access the DISA environment for the development of the ACWS system.	TBD
Enterprise Architecture Tool – ARIS	ARIS (Architecture of Integrated Information Systems) is an enterprise modeling tool that offers methods for analyzing processes and taking a holistic view of process design, management, work flow, and application processing. Licenses will be provided after contract award.	URL
Requirements, Test, and Application Development ManagementTool – HP Application Lifecycle Management (ALM)	A centralized application management platform for managing and automating within and across teams on requirements, test case, defects, release management, and track changes. Licenses will be provided after contract award.	URL
Software Security Tool – HP Fortify	A software security tool that scans and resolves the source code security vulnerabilities, using role-based interfaces to resolve security issues, a dashboard to view software risks across the enterprise, and identify areas for improvement to reduce risks and cost.	URL

CAST	This tool will be used for software code quality check – static analysis	URL
Load Testing Tool – HP Loadrunner	Load testing software that provides an accurate picture of end-to-end system performance to identify and resolve issues before applications go-live. Licenses will be provided after contract award.	URL
Microsoft SharePoint	This tool will be used for collaboration and document management	URL